Article I: Participation in Party Actions

A. Qualifications

1. All legal and qualified voters of Page County, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, and who, if requested, express in open meeting, either orally or in writing, as may be required their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Page County Republican Committee in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions, or primaries encompassing their respective election precincts.
2. A person who has made application for voter registration and meets all other requirements of Article 1, Section A of the State Party Plan, but whose name does not appear on the Page County voter registration books solely because the books having been closed in connection with a local election, will nevertheless be deemed a legal and qualified voter.
3. All inclusions and limitations to qualifications that are a part of the State Party Plan are hereby incorporated in these Bylaws.

Article II: Definitions

The following definitions apply wherever used:

1. “State Party” or “Party” means Republican Party of Virginia.
2. “State Party Plan” means Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia.
3. “State Central Committee” means State Central Committee of the Republican Party of Page County.
4. “Biennial District Convention” means the District Convention held in Congressional election years and is the same as the Quadrennial District Convention in Presidential election years.
5. “Chairman,” “chairmen,” “he,” and “his” shall not be construed to denote gender.
6. “Mass Meeting” is as defined in Robert’s Rules of Order newly revised (latest edition) subject to the provisions of the State Party Plan.
7. “Party Canvass” is a method of election Chairmen and members of the Official Committees, Delegates to Conventions, or Party Nominees which shall include profiling of candidacies, then secret balloting by Party members at convenient polling places and hours after proper notice.
8. “Convention” is as defined in Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised (latest edition) subject to the provisions of the State Party Plan.
9. “Primary” is as defined in and subject to the State Election Laws.
10. “Election District” means Magisterial District of the County.
11. “Good Standing” means requirements have been met regarding payment of dues and good attendance as prescribed by these bylaws.
12. “Elected Officials” shall include the Luray, Stanley, and Shenandoah Town Councils, the Page County Board of Supervisors, the Page County Constitutional Offices (Commonwealth’s Attorney, Sheriff, Commissioner of Revenue, Clerk of Court, and County Treasurer), and the Page County School Board.
13. The Page County Republican Committee will be referred to as “PCRC”.

Article III: Powers, Duties, and Governing Authority

All powers and duties of the Page County Republican Committee are derived from the State Party Plan. Neither actions of this Committee nor provisions of these Bylaws shall conflict with the State Party Plan or amendments thereto. The rules contained in the Robert’s Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the PCRC in all cases to the extent they are consistent with these Bylaws or the State Party Plan.

Article IV: Page County Republican Committee

A. Committee Established: there shall be a Page County Republican Committee.

B. Committee Purpose

1. The purpose and objectives of the PCRC are to:
 - a. promote and promulgate the principles of the Republican Party;

- b. encourage qualified Republican candidates to run for public office;
- c. endorse qualified Republican candidates running for public office;
- d. elect Republican candidates running for public office;
- e. promote political education and activity;
- f. encourage all citizens of Page County to exercise their right to vote in all elections;
- g. support only candidates for public office who reside in our county and are registered to vote within Page County.

C. Membership

1. The composition of the PCRC shall be:
 - a. Unit Chairman;
 - b. Duly elected members of the Committee;
 - c. Elected Public Officials who reside in Page County and were nominated or endorsed by the Republican Party for the office held;
 - d. Vice Chairman;
 - e. Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination;
 - f. Secretary;
 - g. Treasurer;
 - h. Associate Members;
 - i. Appointed Officers.
2. Membership Types:
 - a. Associate Members: Associate memberships may be created by registered voters who pay the yearly membership fee, but who are exempt from attending the required number of meetings, but agree to participate in PCRC events, and in working the polls. Associate Members shall not be entitled to a vote, nor shall they be counted when establishing a quorum.
 - b. Public Officials: All publicly elected Republican officials, who are in good standing with the PCRC shall automatically be members of the Page County Republican Committee.
 1. Those Public Officials who attend meetings regularly will be listed as “Active”. Those that do not attend meetings regularly will be listed as “Inactive”.
 2. Inactive members will not be counted towards a quorum.
3. Membership Fee
 - a. All new members will fill out the “Page County Republican Committee Declaration” form. See Article XII Addendums for a copy of this form.
 - b. All members shall pay annual dues in an amount to be determined by the Committee, but the annual fee shall be no less than $30 and no more than $50.
 1. Public Officials are not required to pay annual dues, but are highly encouraged to do so.
 - c. Dues are to be paid by each member by the Re-Organization Meeting and one year afterwards.

- d. Dues will be considered late after 30 days after the Re-Organization Meeting.
 - e. If dues are not paid by 30 days after the Re-Organization Meeting, the member will not have a vote in the Committee until his dues have been paid.
 - f. A member who has not paid their dues by 90 days after the Re-Organization Meeting, shall be stricken from the Committee.
 - 1. However, any member subject to this section may be reinstated upon payment of owed dues and a majority vote by the PCRC at a regularly called meeting in which the subject member is present.
 - g. Applicants shall pay the membership fee prior to a vote on their application.
 - 1. Applicant fees are non-refundable, regardless of whether they are elected to the Committee, or if they choose to withdraw their application.
4. Membership Election
- a. All members, besides elected officials, of the Committee shall be elected at the biennial reorganization, or at a regularly called meeting of the Committee.
 - b. If an applicant to the Committee applies to be a member of the Committee at a time other than the biennial reorganization, then he must appear at one of the next three regularly called meetings of the unit, and be voted on by the Committee at the meeting in which he appears. The vote for his acceptance as a member shall be the last item of business at said meeting.
 - c. The application for membership must be received at least two weeks (14 days) prior to the meeting in which it will be voted on. The Membership Committee can waive this provision in its sole discretion.
 - d. Any applicant who applies to the Committee after January 1st shall pay one-half of the normal membership fee. For clarification, the applicant who applies after January 1st shall only pay half of the fee at the time of application, but will owe the full membership dues as of the next Re-Organization Meeting.

D. Election, Officers, and Term

- 1. Chairman: The PCRC Chairman shall be elected at the County Mass Meeting, Party Convention, Reorganization meeting, or Primary called for the purpose of election of new officers and reorganization as well as electing delegates to the Biennial District Convention in the 6th Congressional District of Virginia. He shall hold office for two years from the time of his election, until a successor is elected, or unless sooner removed.
- 2. PCRC Members: The members shall be elected at the biennial PCRC Reorganization meeting, Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention, Primary, or regularly scheduled Committee Membership Meeting, and shall hold membership until the next bi-annual PCRC Reorganization meeting, Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention, Primary, or regularly scheduled Committee Membership Meeting, no matter when an individual member joined the Committee. A member may also be elected at any regularly scheduled Committee Meeting.

- a. Any applicant who is denied membership must wait until the next following reorganization meeting to be reconsidered for membership. The applicant will be reconsidered for membership only if they have re-applied for membership.
3. Officers: The PCRC shall have a:
 - a. Chairman;
 - b. Vice Chairman;
 - c. Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination;
 - d. Secretary;
 - e. Treasurer;
 - f. Precinct Chair for each Precinct.
4. Officer Elections: All Officers shall be elected at the biennial reorganization meeting of the PCRC, by a majority vote of the attendees, or the Committee members at a regularly called meeting of the Committee if no person holds a required office. Each Officer shall hold his office until the next reorganization meeting, or until their resignation or removal.
5. Votes Required: All motions, votes, elections, etc. require a majority of the members present to pass, unless otherwise stated in the State Party Plan, these Bylaws, or Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised (11th Edition), in that order of descending precedence.

E. Removal

1. Any member shall automatically lose his status as a member of the PCRC who fails to attend, either in person or by proxy, three consecutive duly called Committee meetings and said reason for his absence is not approved by the Executive Committee, e.g. illness or natural disaster.
 - a. However, a member subject to the immediately above section may be reinstated by a majority vote of the PCRC at a regularly called meeting in which the subject member is present.
2. Any member may be removed from office by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the PCRC members, after being furnished with notice that such removal will be sought, with the charges, in writing, signed by not less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the PCRC; and allowing the member thirty (30) days within which to appear and defend himself. As a point of clarification, the member shall be given an opportunity to defend himself at the next regularly called meeting of the Committee, regardless of the time between furnishing the charges and the next regularly called meeting. A copy of the original signatures shall be furnished to the member, or evidence of the electronic signatures may be furnished in lieu of the original signatures.
3. In accordance with the Republican Party Plan of Virginia, members of the PCRC are held to a higher standard of support for nominees of the Republican Party than an individual who merely participates in a mass meeting, party canvass, convention or primary. Therefore, a member of the PCRC is deemed to have resigned his membership for the balance of their term if he (a) makes a reportable contribution to any other political party, or (b) knowingly allows his name to be publicly used by any other political party, or (c) makes a written or other public statement supporting the election

- of a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee or endorsed candidate, or (d) becomes a member or an officer of any other political party, or (e) runs for office in opposition to a PCRC nominee.
4. For the purposes of this section, "allows" shall mean that a member has either (i) affirmatively given permission for his name to be publicly used, or (ii) refused to publicly disavow the use of his name upon receiving notification by the PCRC Chairman that it is being used.

F. Vacancies

1. A vacancy in the office of the PCRC Chairman shall be filled by the PCRC for the remaining unexpired portion of the term. If no Chairman, or other qualified individual (e.g. the 6th District Chairman) is available to give the Committee notice, then the Executive Committee shall include in the Call for a regularly scheduled PCRC meeting that there will be a special election which shall be held as soon as practical, e.g. when a viable candidate is identified and nominated for the position and will include electing a new PCRC Chairman to fill the unexpired portion of the term.
2. Vacancies in the office of Vice Chairman, Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination, Secretary, or Treasurer, or any other elected officers of the PCRC, shall be filled by the PCRC for the remaining unexpired portion of the term, after notice of such vacancy is given in the Call for a meeting of the PCRC.
3. All vacancies not enumerated above shall be filled after notice of such intent has been included in the Call for the meeting.

Article V: Elected Officers

A. General

1. The Elected Officers of the PCRC shall be a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and the several Precinct Chairmen.
2. Any elected officer vacancy may be filled by the Executive Committee. The term of these officers shall run until the PCRC at large can elect a replacement.

B. Duties of PCRC Elected Officers

1. Chairman: The PCRC Chairman shall be responsible for the general execution and implementation of the programs and policies of the PCRC, commensurate with achieving the goals of the State Party Plan. The PCRC Chairman shall in addition:
 - a. Call Mass Meetings or Conventions in accordance with the State Party Plan and preside over the same until a temporary organization is put in place for the meeting. The Chairman may, with the approval of a majority of the Executive Committee, amend any Call for a Mass Meeting adopted by the PCRC for the purpose of correcting any errors or any omissions required by the RPV.
 - b. Represent the PCRC on the Republican 6th District Committee.
 - c. Convene the PCRC at least once every quarter, and more frequently as the Chairman sees fit for the benefit of the Committee.

- d. Appoint, or allow to be appointed by his designee, a qualified, disinterested person to perform an annual audit of the books and financial records of the PCRC at the end of each full year of the Treasurer's term and report their findings to the PCRC.
 - e. Ensure all new members receive information concerning the PCRC Bylaws, Standing Committees, and other duties, training and education as deemed necessary by the PCRC Chairman or his designee.
 - f. Be allowed, in the conduct of his duties, to expend funds, not to exceed $200.00, to support the PCRC without prior approval of ExComm. Receipts and information regarding such expenditures must be presented at the next regularly scheduled PCRC meeting.
 - g. Be listed on the PCRC bank account as a legitimate and legal signatory official.
2. Vice Chairman: In the absence or disability of the PCRC Chairman, preside over the meetings of the PCRC and exercise the powers of the Chairman. The Vice Chairman shall otherwise assist the Chairman in the performance of his duties.
 3. Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination: The Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination shall be responsible for working closely with the Magisterial Precinct Chairmen to:
 - a. Encourage and support the organization of Magisterial Precinct Chairmen to ensure that they are fully equipped to lead grass roots political endeavors.
 - b. Meet, as needed, with the Magisterial Precinct Chairmen to ensure that the requirements of the bylaws for the Magisterial Precinct Chairmen are met. During these meetings, the expectations of the Executive Committee can be explained in detail.
 - c. Provide the Magisterial Precinct Chairmen with resources and training to ensure each precinct is operating effectively and efficiently.
 4. Secretary: The Secretary shall be responsible for:
 - a. Keeping a record of minutes: The PCRC Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings of the meetings of the PCRC and of the Executive Committee.
 - b. Email: The Call, the Minutes of the previous PCRC meeting and a Proxy form may be sent by email to members in good standing via email. The Call and Minutes of the Executive Committee may be sent to the Executive Committee members via email.
 - c. The Secretary shall have the ability to sign, in coordination and approval of the PCRC Chairman, official documents, and shall otherwise assist the other officers in the performance of their duties.
 - d. Keeping the applications for membership to the PCRC, and for the 6th District Delegates, and for the State Convention Delegates.
 - e. Keeping copies of Calls, Minutes, and applications for a period of five (5) calendar years. Each Secretary shall transmit their records to the new Secretary upon the election of a new Secretary.
 - f. Ensure paper ballots are available at all meetings, as necessary.

5. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be responsible for the safekeeping and disbursement of all PCRC funds; and:
 - a. The Treasurer shall be authorized to distribute funds in accordance with an annual budget duly approved by the PCRC at a regularly called meeting provided that adequate funds are available to meet any priority obligations as established by said budget.
 - b. The Treasurer shall be authorized to disburse funds when so authorized by the PCRC at a duly called meeting, providing that funds to meet other obligations are clearly established.
 - c. When authorized by the PCRC Chairman or Vice Chairman, the Treasurer shall have the authority to make expenditures up to a total of two hundred dollars ($200.00) without approval of the unit committee or Executive committee.
 - d. The Treasurer is empowered and required to open a bank account in the name of the Page County Republican Committee, and to make deposits and withdrawals in said account. Both the Treasurer and the Chairman must be listed on the financial institution's signature form.
 - e. The Treasurer shall present a report at each PCRC meeting covering all transactions occurring during the period from the preceding meeting.
 - f. The Treasurer shall also present an annual report to the PCRC, covering transactions during said year, at the end of each full year of his term.
 - g. The Treasurer's books and records are to be audited annually by a qualified and disinterested party designated by the Chairman and/or the Executive Committee. The audit shall be certified as to correctness and delivered to the PCRC, with a copy being furnished to the Treasurer.
 - h. The Treasurer shall keep proper records and make them available for inspection by members of the PCRC upon reasonable notice.
 - i. The Treasurer shall deliver all official records in his possession to his successor within ten (10) days after the expiration of his term, or to the PCRC Chairman if a successor to the office of Treasurer has not been elected.
 - j. The Treasurer shall be a member of the Finance Committee as provided herein.
 - k. The Treasurer shall keep a record of all membership dues and a list of all current paid members.
6. Magisterial Precinct Chairman:
 - a. A Magisterial Precinct Chairman for each Magisterial Precinct shall be elected by the members of the PCRC residing in the respective Magisterial Precinct. Such Chairman shall be responsible for the activities of the Magisterial Precinct, including precinct organization and appointment of precinct captains who preferably reside in the precincts within his Magisterial Precinct.
 - b. In the event of the removal, disqualification, resignation, death, or change in residence within the respective Magisterial Precinct, Magisterial Precinct Chairman shall be replaced by appointment of the PCRC Chairman until a permanent replacement can be elected by a caucus of the Committee members within such Magisterial Precinct. Such caucus shall be called by appropriate notice to accompany the Call for the PCRC meeting at which such caucus shall act.

- c. Each Magisterial Precinct may have a Vice Chairman and a Secretary, to be elected by members of that Magisterial Precinct immediately after the election of the Magisterial Precinct Chairman. In the event of a Vice Chairman or Secretary vacancy in a Magisterial Precinct, the Magisterial Precinct Chairman may appoint a temporary Vice Chairman or Secretary to serve until the election process occurs.
- d. The Magisterial Precinct Chairman shall be responsible for organizing the Republican Party members within his/her respective precinct.
- e. The Magisterial Precinct Chairman should have an updated list of voters who have voted in the last County Republican Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention or Primary. Voters who are not members of the Committee can be called upon to help with events and elections when they are needed.
- f. The Magisterial Precinct Chairman shall assist in alerting Precinct members about regular meetings and encouraging members to be involved in Committee events.
- g. Duties of other Magisterial Precinct officers:
 - 1. Magisterial Vice Chairman Duties: The Vice Chair should take the place of the Magisterial Precinct Chairman whenever the Chairman is not available to fulfill the duties.
 - 2. Magisterial Secretary Duties: The Secretary should help fulfill the duties of Page County Republican Committee the Chairman and Vice Chair as well as to take notes for any Magisterial District meetings.

Article VI: Appointed Officers

- A. Parliamentarian: The Parliamentarian shall be a duly appointed officer of the Committee, if so appointed by the Chairman.
- B. Sergeant at Arms: The Sergeant at Arms shall be a duly appointed officer of the Committee, if so appointed by the Chairman. The Sergeant at Arms shall be responsible for enforcing the order of the Chairman and for the distribution and collection of paper ballots during any vote by secret ballot.
- C. Communications Officer: The Communications Officer shall be a duly appointed officer of the Committee, if so appointed by the Chairman. The communications officer shall be responsible for managing the PCRC email traffic and advertising/marketing announcements, and the PCRC social media pages. The Communications Officer shall take direction from the Chairman, or the Executive Committee if no Chairman exists.

- D. 2nd Vice Chairman: The 2nd Vice Chairman shall be a duly appointed officer of the Committee, if so appointed by the Chairman, and serve at the pleasure of the Chairman.

Article VII: Meetings

- A. General: The PCRC shall meet at least once per quarter. Additional meetings may be called by the Chairman as he sees fit.

1. Additional meetings shall be called by the Chairman when 1/3 of the Committee petitions for such meeting.
 - i. Said meeting shall be called by the Chairman within 30 days of his receipt of said petition.

- B. Notice: Meetings of the PCRC shall be held upon seven days' notice of the Call.

1. Upon such Notice, the Notice and Agenda shall be made available to the PCRC membership. The Call may be sent to members electronically. The Proxy Form shall be available on the PCRC website.

- C. Proxy: A proxy, subject to the following conditions, may represent a member of the PCRC at any PCRC meeting:

1. No individual may cast more than one vote at any meeting he attends.
2. No Member may be the proxy for more than two Members at any meeting.
3. Where membership on the Committee or subcommittee is contingent upon the residence in a particular election district, precinct, or organization, the proxy holder must be a member of the same election district or organization represented by the absent member of the committee. This subsection also applies when eligibility for the vote being cast is dependent on the particular district, precinct, etc.
4. The proxy holder must be a member in good standing with the PCRC. Any person who acts as a proxy for another must meet the qualifications for membership on the PCRC as set forth in Article I of these Bylaws and meet the requirements as stated in Article VII, Section A (2) of the State Party Plan.
5. All proxies shall be written or by email.
 - i. Proxies in writing shall use the form in Article XII (Addendums).
 - ii. Proxies via email shall state the member who will hold the proxy, and be sent to the proxy holder and the Chairman.
6. Any proxy may be withdrawn by the PCRC member giving it at any time prior to its being exercised.

D. Voting by Ballot

1. At any election when there is more than one candidate for a PCRC office, nomination or endorsement, the vote shall be taken by paper ballot.
2. If one third (1/3) of the members of the PCRC present ask for a secret ballot on an issue before the Committee, the Committee shall use a paper ballot.

- E. Mass Meetings: If the number of persons pre-filing as candidates in a Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, or Convention does not exceed the number of nominations to be made for a particular office, then the pre-filed candidate shall be declared the nominee of the PCRC. If candidates for the nomination for all offices to be decided upon by any Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, or Convention are unopposed, then the candidates shall be declared the nominees of the PCRC, and the Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, or Convention shall be cancelled if provided for in the Call.

Article VIII: Executive Committee

- A. Membership: The Executive Committee (“ExComm”) shall consist of the following members:

1. Voting Members:

- a. PCRC Chairman
- b. PCRC Vice Chairman
- c. PCRC Vice Chairman of Precinct Coordination
- d. PCRC 2nd Vice Chairman (if appointed)
- e. PCRC Secretary
- f. PCRC Treasurer
- g. Communications Officer
- h. Precinct Chairmen

2. Nonvoting members:

- a. Any person invited to attend
- b. Any public official attending who is not one of the voting members

- B. Duties of the Executive Committee: The Executive Committee shall carry out the business of the PCRC in conformity with the policies and programs of the Republican Party. It shall have the general authority to administer the affairs of the PCRC between business meetings and shall report its actions to the PCRC at the regular scheduled meetings.

- C. Quorum: One third (1/3) of the voting members of the Executive Committee present at an Executive Committee Meeting shall constitute a quorum.

- D. Meetings: Meetings of the Executive Committee will, if practical, be held monthly upon the Call of the Chairman for the PCRC Executive Committee meeting, or a Call of two voting members of the Executive Committee.

- E. Notice: The Call for the Executive Committee shall be sent with seven days' notice to all Executive Committee members, if practical, as well as to PCRC members who are invited as non-voting guests.

Article IX: Finance Committee

A. Membership

1. Voting Members
 - a. Finance Committee Chairman
 - b. PCRC Treasurer
 - c. Other members as may be designated by the PCRC Chairman

B. Duties of the Finance Committee

1. The Finance Committee shall be responsible for the overall planning and supervision of the financial affairs of the PCRC.
2. The Committee shall plan, organize, and supervise the raising of funds for the PCRC.
3. It shall prepare an annual budget to be presented by the Treasurer to the Executive Committee prior to the annual meeting and shall perform such other duties as shall be assigned by the PCRC Chairman.

C. Voting: One third (1/3) of the voting members of the Finance Committee present at a Finance Committee Meeting shall constitute a quorum.

D. Meetings: The Finance Committee shall meet as needed in order to provide a report to the PCRC no later than the last PCRC called meeting prior to the PCRC reorganization.

E. Call: The Finance Committee shall meet as needed in order to provide a report to the PCRC no later than the last PCRC called meeting prior to the PCRC reorganization.

Article X: Other Committees

A. Membership Committee

1. The Membership Committee shall consist of a Chairman and such other members as is deemed advisable.
2. The Committee shall vet any applicants to the PCRC prior to the applicant being voted on by the PCRC.
3. The Committee may make a report, and may make a recommendation to the PCRC regarding the applicant's admissibility to the Committee.

B. Nominating Committee

1. Prior to the Mass Meeting, the Chairman of the PCRC shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least three (3) current members of the PCRC. The duties of said Committee shall be to present pre-filed candidates for the position of Chairman of the PCRC. All persons who wish to be nominated for the position of Chairman of the PCRC must prefile.
2. Committee Members to be considered for election shall be present at the Mass Meeting of the PCRC.
3. The Chair of the PCRC shall not be a member of the Nominating Committee.

- C. Ad Hoc Committees: There may be such additional Ad Hoc Committees as may be deemed advisable by the PCRC Chairman or the Executive Committee. The PCRC Chairman shall be an ex-officio member of all such Ad Hoc Committees as are established, except the Nominating Committee. The Chairman of the PCRC shall fill any vacancy of a Chairman of an Ad Hoc Committee as it occurs. The PCRC Chairman shall appoint the committee chairman and approves or selects all members. The PCRC chairman may remove any member of the Ad Hoc committee and replace them.

Article XI: Miscellaneous

- A. Amendments: These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of those members of the PCRC who are present and voting at a duly called PCRC meeting, providing that a copy of such proposed Amendment(s) shall be emailed to all PCRC members forty-five (45) days prior to the meeting.
- B. Quorum: A quorum for PCRC regularly called meetings shall consist of 25% of the voting Members in good standing of the PCRC.
- C. Parliamentary Order: The PCRC shall be governed by the State Party Plan, these bylaws, and by Robert's Rules of Order (latest edition), in that order of descending precedence.
- D. Limitation of PCRC Involvement in Intra-Party Contests
1. No PCRC funds shall be contributed to any candidate in a Republican nomination contest.
 2. The PCRC shall not make any endorsement of a candidate in a Republican nomination contest.
 3. Individual Members may endorse candidates referenced immediately above, provided that such endorsement is solely in that Member's personal capacity and is not made, or appear to be made, on behalf of the PCRC.
- E. Membership List: Any Member in good standing may request, and the Secretary shall provide, a copy of the list of all Members maintained by the Secretary, to include relevant contact information. Members must treat this list as confidential, and shall pledge to not disclose such list to any non---Member. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Chairman may, if requested, provide the Membership List to Republican candidates and to the Sixth Congressional District Committee and to the Republican Party of Virginia.
